Thank you for being a BILL partner

It was great to see some of you at Acumatica Summit! We're excited to be investing in our partner program and joining this ecosystem in a bigger way.

Since we combined the power of BILL and Divvy into one single model, we are delighted to be seeing partners growing their recurring revenue.

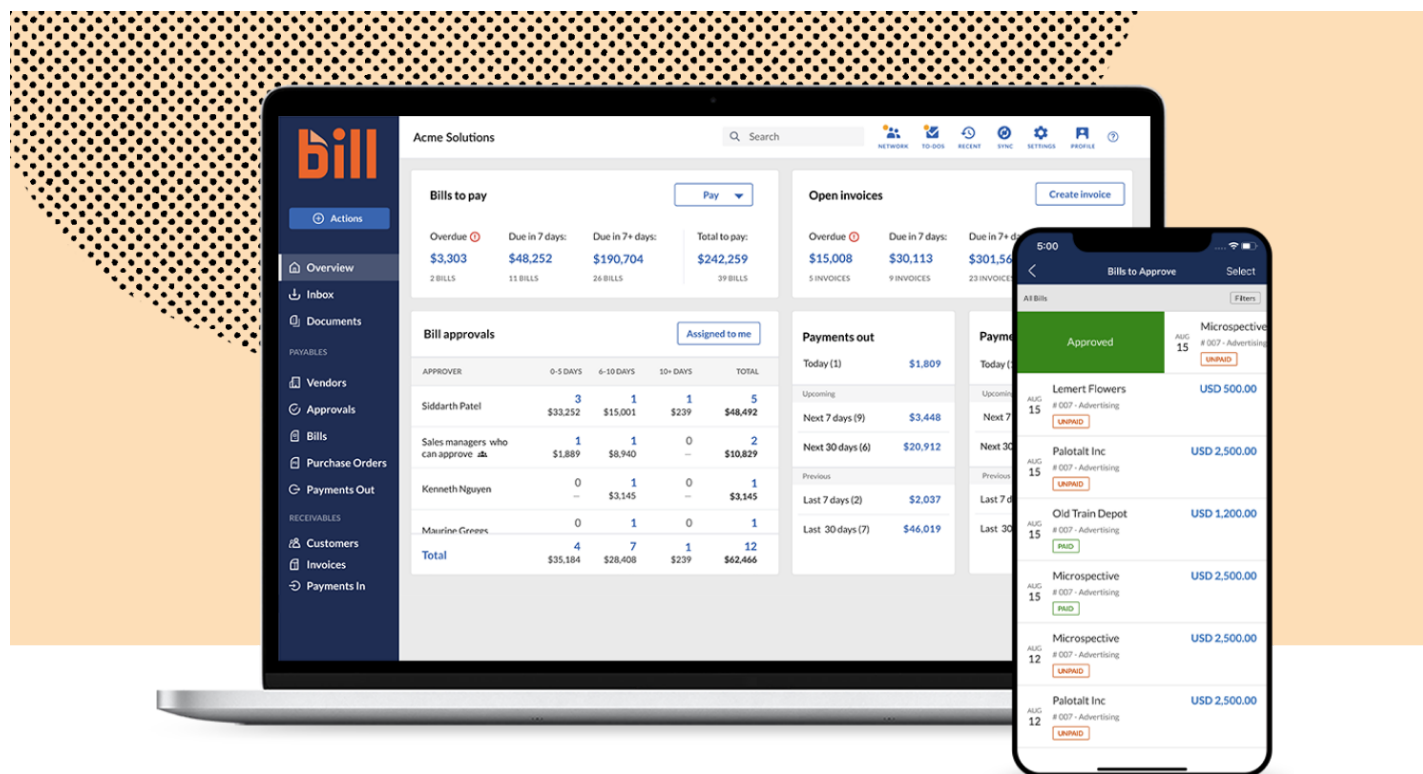

We are developing more self-serve campaigns and materials for your clients. Find them on our portal; no log in necessary.

Thank you again for your partnership. Let us know if there's anything else we can provide to make it easier for you.

Product updates

Acumatica sync

We are pleased to announce that a new sync is on the way! Eclectic Innovative Solutions (EIS) has built a 2-way sync with Acumatica. It is expected to be in Beta testing until spring, then the early adopter program will open up. If you have clients interested in being early adopters, please email Amber Kirkman at akirkman@hq.bill.com.
